For North Carolina—Fair, warmer Tuesday; Wednesday cloudy, probably showers, variable winds becoming South and fresh.

From demoralized to demobilized is the welcome change that has come to the Russian army.

The Negro Problem—the bad negro who does things for which his whole race is blamed.

The enthusiastic things which the alleged Republican leaders do not say about President Roosevelt are astonishing.

Lancashire, England, has just completed 55 new cotton factories. This will increase the demand for raw cotton by a million more bales. Hold your cotton for the new mills.

"New York ministers have denounced Chauncey Depew as a dishonest man," says the Richmond Times-Dispatch. That's what a man gets for considering life as a joke.

"Charles Dana Gibson is going to Europe to study art," says the Baltimore Sun. He's wasting time. He ought to come to North Carolina and help us study nature. Nature is hard to beat, seeing that she has done so much for these artful North Carolina girls. They make a "Gibson girl" envious.

Some New York judge has handed down a decision that "a husband is ruler of his home." Of course any judge with the sheriff and bailiffs in court to protect him can render a decision like that but North Carolina married men are satisfied that the judiciary would be exhausted—and also run out—in any attempt to enforce any such decision in a Tar Hel home were made.

That fellow Cunliffe who stole the $101,000 from the express company "fell down" early in his stunt. By not being able to play his game like an adept, he ruled himself out of the class with the insurance magnates. He gave it out as an excuse for his theft that he only received $65 a month. The messy way in which he handled the big wad is evidence that $65 is about his size.

LOCAL DOTS.

—Fayetteville Observer: "Forty-seven crates of lettuce, the first of the Fall crop, were shipped North to-day by Mr. J. W. Tomlinson."

—Policeman Leon George was befor Justice John J. Furlong yesterday afternoon charged with slander. The charge fell perfectly flat and the officer was discharged.

—A big rally of Carolina aerie of Eagles will be held to-night in its handsome new hall in the I. Shrier building. Business of importance will be transacted and a full attendance is desired.

—Mr. James Walton and crew caught 8,00 bunches of mullets at Wrightsville yesterday. The bunches averaged three each making a total of 24,000 fish. They were marketed in Wilmington.

—A handsome Elks' tooth, mounted in gold, has been selected as the first prize in an interesting pool tournament that will start in the B. P. O. E. club rooms to-morrow night. The tournament will be followed by a social session and a great outpouring of the antlered herd is expected.

—An oil stove on fire caused a slight blaze at the residence of Mrs. P. H. Hayden, on South Ninth street, Sunday evening about 6 o'clock. The blaze was extinguished without calling on the department for assistance. The residence is owned by Capt. R. M. McIntire. The damage was trifling.

—J. T. Herring, a well known and respected colored man of the city, died Friday at his home, No. 1311 Brown's alley. He was buried in Pine Forest cemetery on Saturday. He was employed for many years at the various lumber mills and always enjoyed the confidence and esteem of his employers.

—A handsome new blackboard, extending the entire length of the wall, has been installed at the Chamber of Commerce for the market and stock reports. The new board puts the quotations and stock before one at a moment's notice and is a decided improvement to the interior of the Chamber.

—Treasurer James F. Post gives notice of a two per cent. interest on the new four per cent. certificates of indebtedness of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Co., due and payable at the office of the treasurer to all holders of record as of Oct. 13, 1905. The transfer books will stand closed until Nov. 1, 1905, both inclusive.

—Mrs. Alma Jenkins, 26 years of age, died yesterday morning at 6 o'clock at the family home, Second and Meares streets. She leaves a husband an an infant child, two weeks old. The funeral will be conducted from the residence at 10 o'clock this morning by Rev. J. S. Crowley, and the interment will be in Bellevue.

—Fayetteville Observer: "On account of the extremely low water in the Cape Fear navigation is at a standstill. The work of overhauling and refitting the City of Fayetteville, which was recently purchased by Mr. T. D. Live of the Farmers' and Merchants' Steamboat Company, is progressing rapidly at her wharf in Campbellton."

THE ACADEMY LAST NIGHT.

Browning Stock Company Makes Good in Every Way.

One of the largest and most fashionable audiences assembled to witness an attraction at the Academy of Music in some time, greeted the first performance of the Woods-Browning Stock Company last evening. The company is one of the strongest that ever played to popular prices in Wilmington. Every member of the cast is an accomplished player and a finished artist. The bill offered was "Because He Loved Her," one of the sweetest little heart stories ever written, and only the full strength of which can be appreciated when it is seen in such capable hands as it was last night. There was at no time during the entire performance a noticeable weakness on the part of any of the characters as they were portrayed, and in several instances the intensity of the situations and the ease with which they were handled, swayed the audience.

That the Woods-Browning Stock Company has established itself in the hearts of the people of the city and that they will all week be greeted by a large attendance was evidenced by the enthusiasm and the words of praise from the lips of all who witnessed the first effort.

To-night the play will be "Hot Old Time," a roaring farce comedy, with many bright and new musical numbers. There will also be a complete change of sepcialties. The management of the theatre wishes to announce to the patrons, that the steam will be turned on to-night and every effort will be made to make the house as comfortable as possible.

Address Negro Mass Meeting.

Rev. J. N. C. Coggin, of Atlanta, Ga., secretary of the Negro Young People's Christian and Educational Congress, which had its inception in Atlanta in August, 1902, is here in the interest of the work and will hold a mass meeting in St. Stephen's A. M. E. church tonight. The movement is inter-denominational, non-political and compasses all organizations and agencies at work for the moral and Christian elevation of the race. It is hoped that the colored people will give an enthusiastic endorsement to the movement to-night.

FACE TO THE FUTURE

Merchants' and Farmers' Steamboat Co. Reorganized in More Ambitious Undertaking

TO NAVIGATE THE CAPE FEAR

New Enterprise Acquires "City of Fayetteville" and Will Develop Transportation on Three East Carolina Water Courses.

For the purpose of taking over the steamer "City of Fayetteville" recently purchased at receiver's sale by Mr. T. D. Love, of this city, and for the purpose of developing the steamboat business on the Cape Fear, Northeast and Black rivers, the Merchants' & Farmers' Steamboat Company was reorganized here yesterday under the name of the Cape Fear Steamboat and Inland Waterway Company. The personnel of the stockholders is understood to include some of the largest shippers in the cities of Fayetteville, Wilmington and along the proposed routes of transportation. The capital of the former company was substantially increased and the following officers were elected at the meeting yesterday:

President—Z. W. Whitehead, of Wilmington.

Vice President—Mr. Oliver Evans, of Fayetteville.

Secretary and Treasurer and General Manager—Mr. T. D. Love, of Wilmington.

Superintendent—Mr. Frank Glover, of Fayetteville.

The new charter will give the company the right to operate steamers on the three rivers named and the proposed inland water route from Norfolk to Wilmington and Georgetown, S. C., for the transportation of passengers and freight and also to conduct a general towage business.

Agricultural and horticultural development in this territory has increased so rapidly of late years that farming, mercantile and naval stores development on the interior and remote from railroads but tributary to the various waterways, has been given a wonderful impetus. The new line will therefore give added strength to this movement and with an increased means of transportation, such as the company will offer, future development along this line will even be greater than ever.

Between Wilmington and Fayetteville the head of navigation on the Cape Fear river, there are 86 landings or depots for the receipt and delivery of freight and passengers, while between Wilmington and Chinquepin, on the Northeast river, there are about an equal number of stops, with something like half the number on Black river. The "City of Fayetteville," everywhere acknowledged to be the finest passenger and freight boat in the two Carolinas, is 125 feet long, with double decks, saloons, and all other necessary equipment, a cut of the new steamer being herewith given.

The new company proposes to give the river route people a superior service to anything they have ever had and confidently expects in return a generous patronage which has been assured by the shippers all along the routes. Other boats will be added as the business grows and demands require it. A number of new warehouses are to be erected at several of the more important points for the accommodation of the public.

The Wilmington office, at foot of Chestnut street, will be in charge of Mr. T. D. Love, the general manager of the line, an experienced and capable steamboat man who knows the business from A to Z and who takes to steamboats and river navigation as naturally as a duck does to water. At Fayetteville Messrs. J. & O. Evans, long identified with river navigation, will be the general agents and the company's offices will be in the Overbaugh House, recently purchased by these gentlemen. The warehouse and wharves are to be connected by telephone, Mr. Glover, the superintendent, being in telephonic communication also with Wilmington and other points along the river.

The new organization means added commerce to Wilmington and new business along the water courses centering here. It is the purpose of the Cape Fear & Inland Waterway Company to inaugurate the new schedule with the "City of Fayetteville" on or about November 1. Assurances have recently been given the new officers of the company that the proposed additional locks in the river will be located and built in the near future and altogether the outlook is quite satisfactory. The "City of Fayetteville" was built at an original cost of $28,000 and is now undergoing repairs at Fayetteville. Her advent on the Cape Fear again will mark a new era in river navigation between here and Fayetteville.

Mrs. Angeline Dale Dead.

Mrs. Angeline Dale, mother of Mr. E. J. Dale, a well known citizen, died Sunday afternoon about 2 o'clock at the home of her son, No. 4 Wooster street. She was 74 years of age and had been in feeble health for some time. The funeral was from the residence at 10 o'clock yesterday morning and the remains were taken to Myrtle Grove Sound for ifterment.

GREENFIELD MILL POND WATER SUPPLY SOURCE

Engineers Make Favorbale Report in Connection With Municipal Ownership Plant.

Prof. J. M. Bandy, the consulting engineer of Greensboro who spent four days here the past week, making preliminary examinations of the source of water supply under the direction of the Water Commission, which is investigating the advisability of the municipal ownership of a plant, returned home yesterday evening. In the near future Prof. Bandy will make a written report to the Commission and the matter of the laying of a system of water works will then perhaps be entered upon in definite shape.

It is learned authoritatively that Prof. Bandy's investigations were with special reference to McIlhenny's or Greenfield mill pond as a source of supply and that his observations along that line were very favorable at a meeting of the Commission Saturday night when a verbal report was made. It was Prof. Bandy's opinion that the supply there is ample and that the quality is good. Yesterday he spent in measuring the "intaker" or feed supply of the pond and will make written report upon the whole soon after he returns home.

In his views with reference to Greenfield mill pond, he is supported by another examination by an expert of which he knew nothing until he had given his report. The report is by Mr. G. H. Coleman, an expert of Norfolk, Va., who made written report to Chairman Johnson under date of Oct. 17th. He says in his judgment McIlhenny's pond will afford an ample supply of water to the city for many years to come. In this body of water, he says, the city could get about 40 acres with a depth of about six feet when lowest. He made a personal examination of the supply when there had been no rain of consequence in six weeks. The dam could be raised enough to increase the depth to ten feet with perfect safety, if at any time it should be necessary to do so. He finds that the water in the pond is of excellent quality for all domestic uses. The vegetable matter, he says, could be easily taken out by filtration. The water is declared absolutely free from contamination as there is no foreign matter to interfere with the source of supply. The pond has about eight square miles of water shed, which is principally white sand and acts as a good filter, giving pure clean and cold water as one can readily see by going to the head of the pond.

Mr. Coleman says he finds in the pond a large number of springs coming through the bottom, which act as feed springs and afford a larger portion of the supply therein. In concluding his report, the engineer says that the water is far superior to that used by many other cities and far better than that used by Norfolk and Portsmouth at the present time.

It is Prof. Bandy's rough estimate that the Greenfield supply could be utilized at a cost of $150,000 for a plant and that about $60,000 additional would include the sewerage system. The pond is to the South of the city about one mile and all the conditions for bringing the supply to the city are regarded as favorable. The plan for a system of tubular wells is not regarded as practicable though the Commission has decided on nothing as yet.

AFTERMATH OF THE CARNIVAL

The carnival aggregation departed for Maxton on a special train over the Seaboard Air Line late Sunday afternoon, arriving at Maxton without accident about 8 o'clock Sunday night. Some of the carnival's side attractions went to the Columbia and Fayetteville fairs, but most of the main attractions went to Maxton. A week's carnival under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity commenced there yesterday.

Messrs. Jones & Adams failed to give bond for the three tents and paraphernalia attached Saturday night by the foreigner operating the Oriental theatre show upon an alleged indebtedness of $2,400 and the property remains in the hands of the sheriff, pending the further orders of the court. The tents include the Jones & Adams Zoo, the Bold Bank Robbery and moving picture mahcine and the Oriental theatre canvas. The attachment of the wild animals in the Zoo was suggested but Sheriff Stedman and Deputy Cox prevailed upon the attorneys to relieve them of the care and keep of the beasts. All the other property of the Zoo, however, was taken in charge and is stored in the basement of the Court House.

Messrs. Bellamy & Bellamy and ex-Judge E. K. Bryan, counsel for the owners of the show, yesterday made exception to the bond of $200 furnished by the plaintiff for the maintenance of the suit and Messrs. John D. Bellamy & Son and William J. Bellamy, counsel for the attachee, furnished Mr. W. C. Armstrong as additional surety in the amount of the $200 required. The original bondsman was Joseph Berbary, a Greek of 24 South Front street. The members of the Oriental Theatre Co., are still in the city, but the manager is arranging to attach the show to some other carnival or fair aggregation.

The Red Men committees were busy yesterday in having the streets cleaned up and repaired in the carnival district. They have succeeded well with the fair, have carried out every promise and so far as they are concerned have nothing to regret. The net proceeds to the order will be in the neighborhood of $1,200. Mr. W. L. West, chairman of the Central Committee, requests all bills against their management of the carnival be presented to him for payment at once.

OUTRAGE IN DUPLIN

Negro Brute Attempted Criminal Assault on Six-Year Old Daughter of His Employer

AT WALLACE ON SUNDAY

His Capture and Confession Quickly Followed and He Was Hurried Away From County Jail to Prevent Violence in Community.

Special Star Correspondence.

Wallace, N. C., October 23.—This community has been in a ferment of intense excitement for a day and a night. Yesterday when the sanctity of an early Sabbath afternoon was upon the town and the family of Mr. Howard James, a respectable and well-to-do farmer of Wallace, were at church attending a glorious revival meeting in progress at the tobacco warehouse not far distant, their house was invaded by the black hand, Will Carter, a 16-year-old negro hireling about the place, having attempted a criminal assault upon his little six-year-old daughter, whom the brute had lured into the sitting room of the dwelling and closed the door. The fiend was only hindered from accomplishing his purpose by a suppressed cry from the child which brought the colored cook, who was preparing dinner in the kitchen and in whose care the child had been left by its parents. The colored woman faintly detected the cry of the little girl and hurrying through the passageway, her suspicions were at once aroused by the closed door to the sitting room. She threw the door open and uttered a cry of horror as she saw the negro brute all but in the accomplishment of his foul purpose, his black hand over the little mouth, pale with the dread of the horror that was upon her. Realizing the terrible crime in which he had been discovered, the black fiend turned to the colored woman and implored her to say nothing. She indignantly refused, uttering imprecations upon his head and the negro then made off, returning, however, in a few minutes to again beg the cook to hide his crime. A dozen times she flatly refused and as soon as Mr. and Mrs. James came home from church about half an hour later she told them all.

Mr. James at once notified his friends and as soon as possible about a hundred men in several posses were scouring the woods in every direction for the brute. A little after 4 o'clock the negro was found calmly seated on the depot platform at Willard, evidently awaiting to board the evening train for Wilmington. His captors were Mr. Sam Westbrook, Jr., Mr. H. K. Walton and Mr. Harold Parks. He confessed his identity and the attempted crime and was hurried back to Wallace and a warrant sworn out for him before Justice of the Peace A. L. McGowen. The male population of the town had not returned from the search and with no demonstration, the negro was quickly taken across the country to Kenansville.

The child of Mr. James is fortunately not hurt and the citizens of the community, while greatly wrought up over the affair Sunday and last night, appear more quiet to-day. However, they are determined in one opinion and that is that they will submit to the law but they will demand that the law do its duty and do it quickly.

The negro Carter moved here with his parents from Sampson county about a year ago and has been in the employ of Mr. James on the P. Boney farm, near town, since that time. He is about 5 feet, 3 inches, tall, weighs about 125 pounds and is of a gingercake color. He offered no resistance when caught and confessed everything. The home of Mr. James is not 600 feet from the railroad depot, in the very heart of town. Two younger children of Mr. and Mrs. James were with them at church when the crime was committed.

Arrival at Kenansville.

Kenansville, N. C., October 23.—Will Carter, the negro who attempted the horrible criminal assault at Wallace yesterday afternoon, was brought to the county jail here last night about 9:30 o'clock upon commitment of the Mayor of Wallace. He was taken in charge by Deputy Sheriff C. S. Kennedy and J. S. Herring, Sheriff Middleton living some distance in the country. Probable violence by the outraged people of Wallace was suggested to Sheriff Middleton over the 'phone and he immediately ordered the transfer of the prisoner by a circuitous route to the jail at Goldsboro for safe keeping. The negro was not placed in jail, but was immediately started back toward the railroad by Deputies Kennedy and Herring. Sheriff Middleton met them on the road and directed that the negro be carried for the night to the house of Deputy Sheriff S. P. Hurst, six miles from Kenansville. There under the guard of the three officers, the prisoner remained until morning when he was taken to a point beyond Wallace on the railroad and hurried on to Goldsboro this morning where he will be kept for safe keeping until the next term of court here. Reports reached here that a crowd was being made up at Wallace to take the negro from the jail here but the prisoner was spirited away before the trouble developed.

Mayor's Monday Seance.

There were six penitents before the Mayor yesterday but nearly all of the cases were of trifling importance. Zach Lumley, the young white man charged with resisting Officer M. P. Newton in the confusion attending the attachment of the carnival show at Front and Market streets Saturday night, was exonerated of any blame and discharged. He was represented by Thos. D. Meares, Jr., Esq., who conducted an excellent defence for his client.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

—Mr. C. P. Parker, of Parkersburg, N. C., was here yesterday.

—Mr. and Mrs. M. F. H. Gouverneur and child returned yesterday morning from Baltimore.

—Sheriff W. C. Mills and Mr. M. M. Capps, of Jacksonville, Onslow county, arrived yesterday.

—Capt. J. R. Stephens, the popular S. A. L. conductor, came down yesterday for a brief visit to the city.

—Master Joe Nathan returned Sunday from New York, where he spent several weeks with his uncle, Mr. Joe Schloss.

—Fayetteville Observer:—"We regret to learn that Mr. W. N. Williams is seriously ill at his residence on Gillespie street."

—Mr. J. Thos. Cowan, the well known young druggist of this city, is now with King Brothers, in Raleigh. He is spending a few days in the city with his family this week.

—J. G. McCormick, Esq. of Lumberton, and Judge Fred Moore, of Asheville, passed through the city yesterday, returning from Elizabethtown, where they had been at Bladen court.

—Mrs. W. A. Rourk returned yesterday from Bladenboro, where she visited her sister, Mrs. R. L. Bridger. The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bridger has been critically ill and Mrs. Rourk went to be with the family in their trouble.

—Mr. Thomas Duncan and family of Beaufort, N. C., passed through the city yesterday on their way to Charleston, S. C., their future home. Mr. Duncan has an important position in Charleston as manager of the Charleston Canning Company.

THE COMING MASONIC BAZAAR.

Donation Committee On Its Rounds—Children's Day a Feature.

The Donation Committee for the forthcoming Masonic bazaar is now on its rounds and everybody is asked and expected to contribute something. Thos who will give are asked to notify the ladies in charge. Fancy work, cake, cream, candy, salad, sandwiches and coffee, either or all will be appreciated. The cake and cream is in charge of Mrs. Richard Grant, candy, Mrs. W. A. French, Jr., sandwiches, salad and coffee, Mrs. Richard W. Price, fancy articles, Mrs. D. McEachern; flowers, Mrs. R. C. Cantwell; country store, Mrs. Martin Willard.

One of the big features of the bazaar and one that will be altogether pleasing in many respects will be "Children's Day," on Nov. 9th. Miss Mamie Alderman is chairman. A baby show, dancing and donkey party will be given for the little folks. All the children in the city are invited and expected to attend on that day. Candy and cream will be served for the little ones. A prize for the handsomest baby over three years of age will be given.

WINTER PARK GARDENS.

Reorganization of Development Company Yesterday.

The Winter Park Gardens Company met yesterday in the offices of Messrs. Hugh MacRae & Co., on the fifth floor of the Southern building. Owing to a press of other business, Mr. P. Matthew tendered his resignation as president and Dr. C. P. Bolles was elected to succeed him. Mr. J. A. McGeachy was elected secretary and treasurer to succeed Dr. Bolles. The directorate of the company remains the same—Messrs. Hugh MacRae, Iredell Meares and P. Matthew. It is understood that under the reorganization, plans for the development of the property on the suburban car line will go forward at once and that at no distant date a residential village of no small proportions will adorn the site already laid out and drained at the second toll house. A number of lots have been sold already and other purchasers are in immediate prospect.

PORT PARAGRAPHS.

The schooner Geo. E. Dudley, from New York, arrived Sunday, several days overdue. She has cargo of cement for the Seaboard Air Line.

The schooner Venus, Capt. Faulkner, arrived yesterday from Baltimore with cargo of fertilizers for the Seaboard Air Line. British schooner Benefit also arrived yesterday, light, from New York.

The schooner Kate B. Ogden cleared yesterday for Philadelphia with cargo of 450 cords of poplar wood, consigned by Messrs. Floyd & Jones to the Wood Pulp Co.; vessel by C. D. Maffitt.

In Memory of Dr. Wilson.

The unveiling of the handsome bronze tablet to the memory of the late lamented Rev. Joseph R. Wilson, D. D., at the First Presbyterian church Sunday morning, were attended by appropriate and most befitting ceremonies. The dedicatory sermon was preached by the Rev. Alexander Sprunt, D. D., of Charleston, S. C., and it was remarked upon as an especially able one. Special music was rendered during the exercises, the unveiling having been by Senior Elder B. G. Worth, so long a personal friend and co-laborer in the church with Dr. Wilson. Rev. J. M. Wells, D. D., pastor of the First church, and Rev. Alex. D. McClure, D. D., pastor of Saint Andrew's Presbyterian church, took part in the service adding to the beauty and impressiveness of the unveiling.

REPUTATION.

The Atlantic National Bank's reputation has been years in building and we feel that the community as well as ourselves are proud of its success. The Atlantic has made Wilmington famous as a banking point, and we will spare no effort to maintain our reputation as conservative, safe and accommodating Bankers.

JOHN S. ARMSTRONG, President,
J. W. YATES, Cashier.

The gain in new building and industry in North Carolina is greater than at any period in the State's history. The North Carolina Home Insurance Company, of Raleigh, N. C., should receive its proposition of this prosperity as compared with the percentage of new business given to it in periods of less industrial activity. Give it the insurange on the desirable new properties you have to offer. It will help to build up our home State and continue the great era of prosperity now enjoyed by our people.

WILLIAM H. BERNARD

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Tuesday Morning, Oct. 24.

MISS ROOSEVELT'S PRESENTS.

The press of the entire country is discussing the predicament over the presents which were made to Miss Alice Roosevelt by foreign rulers and others while she was abroad this Summer. The New York Times makes this interesting and suggestive reference to the matter:

"If the Congress were to pass a special bill relieving from payment of import duties the gifts received by the daughter of the President during her recent trip, we do not believe that there would be a score of Americans who would object. But there are difficulties in the way of this disposition of the matter. One is that such a bill in its progress through the two houses, while its essential purposes would be accepted as good, would probably and not unreasonably arouse a debate as to the extremely foolish law under which duties are required in such cases. That is an experience that the friends and beneficiaries of the tariff wish at all costs to avoid if it be possible. And in this instance it is obvious that the inconvenience and absurdity of fining the President for courtesies shown to his daughter, not on her or his personal account, but wholly on account of his official position, are only the natural consequence of the excessive animosity toward foreign goods which lies at the bottom of the tariff laws. Another difficulty is in the fact that Mr. Roosevelt, with characteristic directness, has declared that he would pay the duties as any other citizen would, and he might be embarrassed by having submitted for his signature a measure of this sort. Meanwhile the ridiculous aspect of the matter may turn attention to the real cause of it. We hope that it will."

It is said that Miss Roosevelt's presents are valued at $100,000 and that the tariff duty on them is $25,000. Of course the country would not like to have President Roosevelt pay the duty but there is no other way out of it. He would not permit an exception in his case, but the incident will serve to show the balance of us how much we pay in tariff duties, not so much on foreign goods that we may use but on the increased price which the tariff enables manufacturers to tack on in order to get the benefit of the protection which is levied on the people in their interest by the President's party.

THE PRESIDENT AND SOCIAL EQUALITY.

Says our esteemed contemporary the Charlotte Chronicle:

"In his talk with Clarence H. Poe, at Raleigh, President Roosevelt declared himself keenly interested in Southern affairs, and anxious to hold up the hands of broad men like ex-Governor Aycock and Bishop Strange. 'I wish to follow your conservative and liberal Southern leaders; not try to impress views of my own,' said the President. On the question of social equality and intermarriage he is quoted as saying that he had never known a white man, North or South, since reconstruction, who believed in that sort of thing."

Still the President must remember that no Northern State has a law against inter-marriage of the races. This shows that the idea is not so repugnant to the masses that they are not willing for miscegenationists to marry to suit themselves. It also plainly means that States which have no laws against this monstrous crime tolerate it.

Politically, President Roosevelt thought the negro Crum was good enough to force on the proud City of Charleston as collector of customs and against other protests of the entire State of South Carolina. Politically, officially or socially, the President entertained Booker T. Washington at his table, but as he will take Bishop Strange and former Governor Aycock as his advisers they will tell him that the Crum incident was an enforcement of political equality and the Washington incident was rather social from the Southern point of view.

The Star begins the publication to-day of a series of one hundred signed letters of graduates of the famed Keeley Institute at Greensboro, a new letter appearing each day. They are from men who had lost control of themselves by the excessive use of alcoholic liquors and who certify that they were completely cured by the Keeley treatment.

New Book.

"Deerfoot on the Prairies" is the second volume of the New Deerfoot Series in which Edward S. Ellis, the popular writer for boys, has yielded to the demands of many readers and brought back to life the wonderful Indian hunter. In this volume he makes a long and dangerous voyage from Ohio to the Pacific coast with two young friends and a guide. Deerfoot's courage and resourcefulness bring the little party safely through every one of the dangers which fall thick and fast on them, and some of his feats seem almost miraculous. Their adventures take place about a century ago, when every species of wild beast and tribes of hostile Indians menaced their path. A thrilling story. Cloth, 12mo, illustrations in black and colors by J. Steeple Davis, 366 pages. Price, $1.00. The John C. Winston Company, Philadelphia.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—We will say this for the South, that it is as intense in its hospitality as in some other things.—Boston Transcript.

—Mr. Carnegie's advice to women to cut their hair will never be popular in a country that has already suffered too much from short-haired women and long-haired men.—Washington Post.

—We will not have a President of the United States as an attraction at our fair, as North Carolina and Georgia did, but on or about next Thursday we will be willing to compare crowds with them.—Columbia Record.

—They are telling it now that the President was induced to stop at Lexington "because Davidson is the only county in North Carolina that gave him a majority in the last National election." Must be a mistake about that. Our recollection is that Roosevelt carried more counties than the Democrats cared to see him carry.—Charlotte Chronicle.

—United States army engineers have reported that for an outlay of from $8,000,000 to $10,000,000, a fourteen-foot waterway can be provided from Chicago to St. Louis. This is not a large sum to spend on connecting tow such systems of navigation as those of the Mississippi and the great lakes. It may be practicable to go by fresh water from Montreal to New Orleans yet.—Montreal Gazette.

—In Paris, where the French translation of the late Oscar Wilde's "De Profundis" has found an extensive sale, it is thought to be not unlikely that things will happen over the vernacular version. The sale profits of the version, it is stated, amount, so far, to between £800 and £900. This sum is claimed by the official Receiver in Bankruptcy for the benefit of the English creditors of the author.—London Pall Mall Gazette.

—Mr. Dixon ought to secure the loan of that Wallace house gavel in the Timrod library in Columbia for use in his Clansman. That by the way, ought to be regarded as the most sacred of all the State relics is it fell to announce the downfall of the worst government in the history of the world and the uprising of the rule of the white race in the South. It literally struck the shackles of barbarous tyranny from the ankles of the race. It would be a good thing for Mr. Dixon to have in connection with his study of that period. Mr. Dixon might write us another play taking in that very exciting incident in our history.—Florence Times.

TWINKLINGS.

—Teacher—What is an untimatum? Tommy—It's what pa cuts off o' the peach tree after he called me three times and I aint up yet.—Cleveland Leader.

—Mamma—Now, here's a quarter for you, dear. Bobbit—Pa, won't you give me five nickels for this quarter? Pa—Why do you want to break it, son? Bobbie—So ma can't put it in the gas meter.—Indianapolis Star.

—"Yes," said the condescending youth, "I am taking fencing lessons." "I allus said you was goin' to turn in an' do somethin' useful. What's your specialty goin' to be—rail, stone, or barbed wire?"—Washington Star.

—Young wife on the honeymoon—Dearest, I wish you wouldn't be so extravagant with your money. Husband—Why, loved one? "Because you'll have no money left for alimony if you don't look out."—Yonkers Statesman.

—Affable Stranger—I can't help thinking I have seen your picture somewhere in the newspapers. Hon. Mr. Greatman—Oh, no doubt, no doubt. It's often been published. Stranger—Then I was not mistaken. What were you cured of—London Tit-Bits.

—"I see that the Mayor of Madison, Wis., has ordered the police to shoot college students who do not behave themselves. "I don't think that's at all right. One of those careless policemen might shoot a valuable football player by mistake."—Cleveland Plain-Dealer.

—"Where is the twelfth juror?" exclaimed an Idaho Judge as court reconvened, after a recess, with only eleven good men and true in the box. One juryman arose. "Please, Judge," said he, 'it's Ike Simmons as is gone. He has to go on private business, but he's left his verdict with me."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

THE COTTON, MARKETS.

New York, Oct. 23.—The cotton market was active and showed considerable excitement with prices at one time about 30 points net higher on covering of shorts and an expanding demand through wire and commission houses on frost reports. The close was only a few points off under realizing and steady at a net advance of 20 to 23 points. Sales were estimated at about half million bales. The market opened strong at an advance of 13 to 21 points in response to the reports of heavy frosts pretty generally in the northern belt and much higher Liverpool cables than due on the New York close of last week. There was heavy realizing at the advance, but there was also an active and excited demand and after easing off 7 or 8 points the market firmed up again on the private reports of firmer interior holders and damage from low temperatures, and reached the high point of the session and so far for the upward movement in the early afternoon when January cotton sold at 10.47 as compared with 9.62, the lowest level of last week. Toward the close realizing became heavier and prices again sagged off, but there seemed to be good support at the decline and the market closed within 7 to 8 points of the top. Southern spot markets were unchanged to 3-16c higher. Estimates for tomorrow's receipts were liberal but attracted little attention in view of the increased popularity of reduced crop estimates.

Receipts at the ports today were 46,815 bales against 54,080 last week and 60,551 last year. For the week estimated 320,000 bales against 319,685 last week and 399,287 last year. To-day's receipts at New Orleans 8,168 bales against 13,260 last year and at Houston 16,369 bales against 10,928 last year.

THE BURNING DESIRE

For Ten Years This Man Was In Bondage to the Demon Strong Drink.

A BESOTTED DRUNKARD

Went to Keeley and Returned Home Bringing Sunshine and Gladness to Those Who Loved Him, Cured of His Awful Malady.

The Keeley Institute, Greensboro, N. C.:

For ten years I was in bondage to the demon, strong drink. I could not go where it was and leave, a sober man. I would resolve not to taste it, but these resolutions, with hundreds of promises to my dear wife, were broken. The last five years that I drank, it had such a hold upon me I could not resist the burning desire, and, when I had taken one drink, I would have gotten drunk even if I had known it would be the death of me; nothing could prevent it. The tears of my old mother, the entreaties of my wife and children were as naught compared with the ever burning thirst for whiskey. Love of wife, children, home, relatives, reputation, honor and the hope of Heaven itself, all fled before this, the greatest of human destroyers. Yea, nothing could stop me in my mad career of debauchery, for often in my soberest moments would I resolve never again to touch the damnable stuff, and in my misery would I pray for strength which would enable me to resist the hell-born, held-supported power of the demon Alcohol. But my disease was too deeply seated. I could not of my own power cure myself, and each day I grew worse.

My wife, children, mother and friends alike had no hope of my redemption; and with many misgivings, carried me to your Institute in Greensboro. In March, 1903, I came to you a poor besottet drunkard, and in one month I was discharged and returned home a sober man, bringing sunshine and gladness to those who loved me, cured of my awful malady, and my life shall ever be a monument of sobriety to the Keeley Treatment.

I would say to all, who are in bondage to strong drink, whose lives are being destroyed, to go to Keeley, and if you would be saved, listen not to liquor dealers, and bar room loafers when they tell you it will do you no good; for they are the agents of the devil; and their statements are as false as hell itself. I speak from experience when I tell you the treatment cured me. It can cure you. It saved me from a drunkard's grave and hell; and it will save you if you desire to be saved and will only give it a chance.

G. E. GARDNER,
Burnsville, N. C., Nov. 30, 1904.

PUBLIC OFFER

To All Persons in Wilmington Who Wish to Accept.

Are you thin? Do you require more flesh to be really well and strong?

To every such person in Wilmington, we make the following offer: Commence at once a course of treatment with Vinol, our cod liver oil preparation, without oil, and if after you have taken what we consider enough to restore your normal weight, and it has not succeeded, we will pay for all the Vinol you have taken.

A prominent New York physician recently said, "I am convinced that the best way to gain good, solid, firm flesh is to take Vinol, for in it you get all the curative, flesh-making and strength-creating properties contained in that grand old remedy, cod liver oil, without the nauseating oil itself. It is delicious, and the weakest stomach can retain it. Thin people are usually weak and ailing, and Vinol is what they need."

Vinol acts first upon the stomach, creates an appetite for good, wholesome food, strengthens and tones up the digestive organs. Rich, red blood is sent coursing through every vein, firm flesh is created wherever it is needed and emaciated figures, hollow cheeks and sunken eyes are soon a thing of the past.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

—Work is progressing rapidly on the cotton warhouse at Maxton, and the farmers are waiting to use it. Many of them are holding their cotton for 11 cents.

—Elkin Times: A novel blockade distillery was seized Tuesday near the line of Knob's and Buck Shoals township. The still consisted of an iron wash pot with another pot for the cap. One of the legs was out of the cap and here they attached a kind of worm, using an oil can for a condenser. It is said that it was being operated by two small boys, 12 or 14 years old, and they had made about a pint at a run.

—Charlotte Observer, Oct. 23rd: There was another negro shooting affair near the city last night, and Ed. Small gave Will Clinton what may prove a fatal wound. The colored people south of Charlotte, on the Camden road, between here and Griffith's, attended a marriage at the home of old Daniel Lindsay. Small and others were drinking. Later on Will Clinton was found, badly shot, lying near the crossing of the public highway and the railroad, by his brothers. The wounded negro was brought to town. He is shot in the stomach and may die.

—Mr. George Miller, one of Rowan county's substantial farmers, residing seven miles east of Salisbury, a few days ago found $68 in cash which he had hidden away in a box of cotton seed five years ago. The cotton seed had been stored in an outbuilding and had not been disturbed during the time, and Mr. Miller, with a shovel, examined the condition of same to see whether or not they were rotten. With his shovel he turned up a lump, which at first was not recognized, but after investigation, it was found to be money. The treasure had been stored away and forgotten and then accidentally found.

—Charlotte News: North Carolina has a lot of things in which she leads, to be proud of. Over at Winston 31,000,000 pounds of tobacco are manufactured each year and 18,000,000 pounds of leaf tobacco are sold on the Winston market annually. If that's not a record it comes dangerously near it. Then only a few paces from Winston-Salem is the second greatest furniture manufacturing town in the United States, High Point, having over 60 furniture factories alone, outside of many other manufacturing establishments, including an electric car plant. When you take a trip through the eastern part of the State you run up on the greatest strawberry-shipping station in the world, and a back track trail will carry you to the "Land of the Sky," where some of the rarest jewels of the world are found, and where the mountain scenery surpasses even the grandeur of the Rockies.

—A Raleigh about 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon Charles Smith a fair follower, of Petersburg, Va., was shot to death in the Union passenger station, and two other fakirs, Harry Clark, of Mexico, Mo., and R. E. Lilliston, of Norfolk, are in jail, charged with the crime. Clark and Lilliston had quarrelled the night before at a house in the red light district, and had threatened to kill each other. When they met at the Union station they began firing at each other, a stray ball hitting and killing Smith, who was a spectator. The ball struck Smith in the back, and he walked about ten feet before falling. He was carried to a hospital and died a half hour later. Seven shots were fired and Lilliston had four bullet holes in his clothing. Both men ran some distance before officer overtook them. It is difficult to find witnesses who can testify as to which man fired the first shot. The passenger station was crowded and the shooting caused a panic.

—Maxton correspondence: Our people are much excited over the brutal treatment of Mr. M. A. Sutherland at the hands of Policeman J. S. Smith here last Saturday Mr. Sutherland was under the influence of whiskey, but in no way violent and disorderly, and was just being helped into his buggy to drive to his home, about three miles from town when Smith seemed to take offense at something said to him personally and arrested Sutherland, who made a feeble effort to resist, whereupon Smith struck him on the head several times, knocking him to the ground and striking him once after he fell, but was prevented from doing further injury by one of the bystanders, who caught the stick which was not a regulation club, but a deadly weapon. Sutherland was unconscious for several hours, having several ugly wounds in the scalp, reaching the skull, but will recover. Smith was immediately arrested by a State officer and in default of bond was taken to Lumberton and lodged in jail this afternoon. Smith has made a very brutal officer, several times before using his authority unreasonably and the people of the town, with once voice, say "let him suffer for it." He will be brought back Monday morning for trial.

—A dispatch from Statesville on Sunday says: Judge Long, of Statesville, and Solicitor Hammer, of Asheboro, passed through the city last evening, returning to their respective homes from Yadkinville, where they have been holding court. Solicitor Hammer reported that no important cases were tried at this term, though a rather serious charge was lodged against the keeper of the Yadkin county home, Mr. M. H. Bryant, who was arrested and required to give bail in the sum of $500 for his appearance at the next term of Yadkin court. The grand jury had been discharged by Judge Long when witnesses were examined by the solicitor in the county home case, otherwise a bill against Superintendent Bryant would have been drawn and sent in at this term. Cruel treatment to the inmates of the home on the part of the superintendent is one of the charges against Mr. Bryant. Solicitor Hammer was furnished with evidence to the effect that Mr. Bryant had not only whipped an old woman several times, but had kept her in the mad house several days at a time. The solicitor was also advised that illegitimate children had been born at the home. "The investigation I had made of the Yadkin county home," said Solicitor Hammer, "was at the suggestion of the State Board of Charities."

—There will be in the First Presbyterian church at Salisbury Tuesday, October 24th, a wedding of a Salisbury young lady and a Vermnt gentleman that will attract the attention of many towns in the State. On this evening Miss Mamie Hedrick becomes the bride of Mr. Redfield Proctor, Jr., of Proctor, Vermont. A real romance has attended this affair of love from its beginning. When Miss Hendrick was in the high school in Washington, Mr. Proctor was also in Washington, and there met her. She followed her studies there with entrance into Vassar and had a triumphant course there. Mr. Proctor was then at Harvard, from which he graduated with honor. Miss Hendrick is the daughter of Mr. John A. Hedrick, Rowan's wealthiest citizen and real estate dealer. He lives in a beautiful country home, five miles from Salisbury and his daughter lives with him there. She is an exceptionally brilliant young woman, a striking type of the petite figure, pretty brunette in complexion, and captivating in manner. She is splendidly educated, as her graduation from the famous Vassar shows. She has also been aboard since that time. The distinguished groom has won a fine Southern girl. Mr. Proctor comes of a family of great names. He is a son and a namesake of United States Senator Redfield Proctor, a multi-millionaire, and the owner of the great granite mines at Proctor. The young people will live in the home of Mr. Proctor.

HAPPY RESULTS.

Have Made Many Wilmington Residents Enthusiastic.

No wonder scores of Wilmington citizens grow enthusiastic. It is enough to make anyone happy to find relief after like the following are but truthful representations of the daily work done in Wilmington by Doan's Kidney Pills:

J. E. Bloodworth, residing at 30 South Front stret and employed at 123 Princess street, says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they have proven to be a very valuable remedy and I believe I am safe in recommending them. My back and kidneys have given me great trouble. I thought I had rheumatism. I had shooting pains through my back and sides which often made me yell right out. If I stood, sat or lay down or kept in any one position for any length of time it was almost impossible for me to move on account of the great pain. I heard some one speak of Doan's Kidney Pills, and I sent down to Bellamy's drug store and got a box. They completely removed the pains. They are without doubt, a valuable remedy for backache."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—DOAN'S—and take no other. **

YOUR HAT

May Be a Stylish One, But It Makes Trouble.

A man usually buys a hat that's "in style," but the modern hat for men has lots to answer for.

Baldheads are growing more numerous every day. Hats make excellent breeding places for the parasitic germs which sap the life from the roots of the hair.

When your hair begins to fall out and your scalp is full of Dandruff it is a sure sign that these countless germs are busily at work.

There is but one way to overcome the trouble and kill the germs—that way is to apply Newbro's Herpicide to the scalp—it will kill the germs and healthy hair is sure to result.

Special Trial Offer

THE MORNING STAR

At Reduced Rates To New Subscribers

For the next sixty days will mail THE MORNING STAR to subscribers outside the city at the following reduced rates:

FOR ONE YEAR $4.00
FOR SIX MONTHS $2.00

Positively, no subscription will be taken at the reduced rates for a period less than six months. For one month the price will be, as heretofore, $1.25 for three months; or, fifty cents for one month.

This offer, as will be noted, is for a limited period only, and is made for the purpose of giving those who appreciate the value of a daily newspaper an opportunity to read the STAR for six months, or more, at a cost of about one and a quarter cents per copy, and then determine whether or not they will continue their subscription at the regular price.

No name will be entered on our books under this offer unless the order is accompanied with the cash.

While this proposition is made primarily to secure new subscribers, old subscribers outside the city may avail themselves of its advantages at the reduced rate provided they pay all arrearages and for not less than six months in advance.

On account of the heavy expense attached to our city circulation department this offer does not apply to city subscribers.

Sample copies mailed free to any address.

Note the conditions of this offer carefully to avoid mistakes.

Boilers and Pipes

Cover your boilers and pipes with our Asbestos Cement—estimate given free—20 to 50 per cent, saved in fuel.

MUTINOUS SAILORS SOUGHT REVENGE

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New York, Oct. 23.—Four men were badly wounded in a series of battles between the officers and crew of the lumber schooner Ida B. Gibson, and afterwards between Milton Cordery, the cook of the Gibson, and the police, early to-day. For an hour about daybreak the cook armed with a shot gun stood off the police reserves of the Delancy street station and wounded a detective and night watchman. Frank H. Medley, the mate of the Gibson, was missing to-day and may have been murdered by the crew of the Gibson, who were compelled to pump the leaky craft all the way from Norfolk, Va., to New York.

The trouble on the Gibson began soon after she sailed from Norfolk early last week. Before she was clear of that port she was run aground and when floated, sprang aleak. The crew was ordered to the pumps and compelled to man them all the way up the coast despite their protests, and it reported that the officers of the Gibson were compelled to use force to put down the beginnings of a mutiny.

On arriving at New York, the Gibson tied up at Pier 55, East River, and the crew were paid off and discharged. At an early hour to-day Captain Bradley, Frank Medley, the mate, and Milton Cordery, the cook, were leaving a hotel near the vessel when they were set upon by a dozen men said to include the members of the crew of the Gibson and friends whom they had enlisted. In the fight that ensued, Captain Bradley received severe stab wounds in the side and shoulder, and the cook was slashed in the face.

Captain Bradley ordered the cook aboard the vessel to prevent any one boarding her while he went to the hospital for repairs. Cordery obeyed orders to the letter. He closed every hatch but one, and installed himself in that one with a shot gun loaded with buckshot. About day break today Detective Henry Hadlich. William McManus, a negro watchman, and two policemen tried to board the Gibson to find out what the trouble was. Cordery warned them to keep off, saying that he would shoot. The invaders told him they were police, but he replied that it made no difference, and when they kept on coming, he fired, wounding McManus in both feet.

Hadlich made a dash for the deck and was shot in the side with thirty buckshot. The police reserves were then summoned and laid seige to the cook when Captain Bradley walked aboard and told the cook to quit it. Cordery then surrendered and was locked up. The Gibson was sinking and the captain went to the police station to demand the release of the cook to keep the vessel afloat. He denounced the police and was hustled into a cell, despite his protests that his vessel would sink.

Frank H. Medley, the mate, was not seen after the fight in the street. It was feared that he was murdered.

In court Captain Bradley was fined $10 for interferring with the police while Cordery, the cook, was held without bail to await the result of the injuries to Detective Hadlich.

SITUATION AT FALL RIVER.

Manufacturers Decline Demand of Textile Council—Strike Probable.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Fall River, Mass., October 21.—The textile situation was more critical tonight than it has been at any time since the close of the great strike last January. The Manufacturers' Association representing all the printcloth mills in the city, with the exception of those controlled by M. C. Borden, of New York, held a meeting this afternoon and voted to refuse the request of the Textile Council for a direct restoration of the wage schedule which prevailed previous to the 12 1-2 per cent. reduction of July 25, 1905. The action of the association will be considered at a special meeting of the Textile Council tomorrow night when it is probable the entire matter will be referred to special meetings Wednesday evening of all the unions represented in the council. Many of the business men fear that another strike will be declared by the unions, but at this time it is impossible to indicate what action the operatives will take.

The association today considered a letter sent by the Textile Council, which had rejected the manufacturers' proposition and required that the full restoration be granted.

The plan of the Manufacturers' Association provides for a direct increase of five per cent. and a profit sharing arrangement, the profits due the employes to be figured monthly on the market price of cloth, which, however, much show at least a margin over the cost of cotton of 75 cents per cut. The present condition of the market would net the employes about eight per cent. which would make a total increase in wages of about 13 per cent.

President James Tansey, of the Textile Council, when informed tonight of the manufacturers' decision, said he regretted very much the action of the mill owners, but would not enter into a discussion of the situation.

MR. ROOSEVELT IN ALABAMA

TALKS ABOUT PANAMA CANAL

Declares Its Advantage to Gulf States and Says It Will Be Built—Admiral Semmes' Son Presents Souvenir.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Mobile, Ala., Oct. 24.—All Mobile tonight lent itself to the reception of President Teodore Roosevelt. There was general closing of all business houses but along the route of the procession from the union station, to the stand on Bienville Square, where the reception ceremonies took place, residences and stores were covered with decorations of lights and burning in the national colors.

The route was out Government street, one of the most beautiful drives in the South, for ten blocks, passing the homes of some of Mobile's most influential citizens, her chief educational institutions and one of her historic churches. The sidewalks and streets along Government street were packed with humanity, and at McGill Institute, Barton Academy and one or two other points, hundreds of school children were massed, singing national songs as the procession passed.

Cheer, after cheer welcomeed the nation's chief. There was a large military and civic procession with Confederate veterans acting as a guard of honor.

A stand was erected in Bienville Square which, when the President arrived was filled with 40,000 citizens. The area was brilliant with electric lights while live oaks formed a canopy of green. The President reached the stand at 5 o'clock where he was received by a reception committee of five hundred citizens. His seat was on an elevated dias in a chair which was built by the students of a technical school in Japan. Back of the chair was an enormous stuffed bear, eight feet tall, bearing in its mouth a floral independence bell and above its head a white dove holding a streamer on which was the inscription, "Blessed Is the peace maker."

The bear was killed in a hunting expedition by his majesty, Alexander II. of Russia in 1857, according to the inscription on a bronz plate on the base of the mounting and was presented by Czar Alexander to "The Duke of Osuma, Comte l'Ynfantando, Duke de Buenevito and l'Arcos, Prince d'Ebodie." The house of Ebodie became extinct in the eighties and the effects in the palace of the prince were disposed of by public sale. The bear was purchased by Hannis Taylor, then minister of the United States at Madrid.

Oliver J. Semmes, son of the Confederate admiral, Raphael Semmes, then presented to the President and pinned on the lapel of his coat a handsome souvenir badge as the gift of the people of Mobile.

In delivering the badge, Judge Semmes said:

"Mr. President: I ask your attention for a moment. I have been delegated by the people of Mobile to present to you this token, a symbol of their fealty as citizens of the United States. Though itself of little intrinsic value yet in sentiment it represents the loyalty, the worth and the honor of as brave, chivalric and noble a people as is to be found on the face of God's green earth. We proud citizens of a proud republic, feel and believe that you as the head of that republic will by your broad views and judicious actions so unite in bonds of friendship all sections of our beloved country, that Americans will advance till they become the foremost of nations and may without a misgiving defy a world in arms. Should this awful necessity ever arise, then the sons of the South will be found a mighty armed camp.

"Take this little reminder and when you look upon it amid your arduous and multifarious duties, feel and know that the people of Mobile have buried the past and look without fear to the future, recognizing that you, as is shown by your later utterances, are the President of the North and South, our whole country."

Judge Alford, chairman of the committee on arrangements then introduced the President who was briefly and warmly welcomed by Mayor P. J. Lyons, who paid high tribute to him as a man, statesman and patriot. The formal welcome was then delivered by Col. E. LaFayette Russel who said:

"Your coming among us has been a source of inspiration to our people who are familiar with your record as a soldier and a citizen. Your wise statesmanship coupled with your public declarations have given them confidence in your sincerity of purpose and patriotism. Since you have been President you have demonstrated by your administration of our Federal affairs that you are loyal and devoted to our entire institutions, coined out of the blood, sacrifice and treasure of our ancestors. Such is the faith of our people in you as a patriot that they believe you would cheerfully surrender your life rather than endanger the sacred trust that has been confided to your patriotic keeping."

President Roosevelt was cheered as he arose to speak. He thanked the people for their magnificent reception and spoke a special word of greeting to the Confederate veterans who formed a portion of his escort. Referring to the Panama canal the President said he did his best to bring about its completion for the benefit of the whole people but particularly for the benefit of the Gulf States. Originally he said he favored the Nicaragua route, but when it was demonstrated that it must be the Panama canal or nothing he favored the Panama route, as he wnted to see a canal built and one will be built. Notwithstanding the efforts of certain people who are striving by their circultion of false rumors or other methods to delay or defeat the construction of the canal, the President said they will be disappointed for there is going to be a canal. Health conditions on the isthmus he said, are better now than ever before. The President said:

"If we build the canal, we must protect it and police it ourselves. We must, therefore, bring up and keep up our navy to the highest point of efficiency. In the event of war the American people must rely mainly upon its volunteer soldiers. While it is comparatively a simple matter to turn a man into quite a good soldier, you can neither improvise a battleship or the crew of a battleship. It is not necessary that we should have a particularly large navy but it is necessary that ship for ship should be little the best in the world."

"Every man who had to do with bringing about the construction of the canal knows that for decades it was opposed and successfully opposed by great commercial interests which did not wish to see it completed and did not wish to see a canal speedily dug through the isthmus and communication between the Atlantic and Pacific speedily established. It seems to be evident from certain things I see in a portion of the daily press that those causes are still active and they are going to try to bring up the issue with the hope of putting off for ten or fifteen years, or over, the digging of that canal. Their weapons have been and are every form of misrepresentation, and, gentlemen, they will fail. You need not have the slightest alarm. Uncle Sam has started to dig that canal and it will be dug soon. The people who are largely by the circulation of false rumors and by direct misstatements seeking to create confusion, such as will defer the building of the canal will be disappointed. We have as a people the right to feel genuine satisfaction with the progress that has already been made. I am happy to be able to tell you that from information received this very day I find that those who have just returned from the isthmus are not only pleased but astonished at the excellent trim in which the project is. That it is going on well and that it will go along even better in the future."

Montgomery, Ala., October 23.—President Roosevelt's special arrived in Montgomery at midnight, exactly on time.

New Orleans, October 23.—The armored cruiser West Virginia which is to take the President North after his visit to New Orleans arrived off the mouth of the river today and anchored

The President concluded his speech by refering to his pleasure at seeing the children, the future citizens of this country. "The fathers and mothers must see to it that the children are properly trained in order to keep up the standard of our country."

JERRY SIMPSON PASSES AWAY.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Wichita, Kas., Oct. 23.—Jerry Simpson died at 6:05 o'clock this morning. Mr. Simpson was conscious up to five minutes before death. The end came without a struggle. Mr. Simpson was born in New Brunswick on March 31, 1842. At 14 he began life as a sailor, and during 23 years followed that pursuit, commanding many large vessels on the Great Lakes. In the Civil War, he served in the Twelfth Illinois Infantry. He came to Kansas in 1878. Originally he was a Republican, but later became a Greenbacker and Populist. He was a member of Congress from 1891 to 1895 and from 1897 to 1899, being nominated the last time by both the Democrats and Populists. After he left Congress he removed to Roswell, N. M., where he engaged up to the time of his death in stock farming. He returned to Kansas a month ago and entered a hospital for treatment. His condition became hopeless ten days ago and since then the patient was kept alive principally by sheer force of will. His wife and son were at his bedside at the time of death.

Death was caused by aneurism of the aorta. Mr. Simpson had been in ill health for nearly a year. Six months ago he consulted a specialist at Chicago, who pronounced his case hopeless. Burial will take place at Wichita. The Masonic Order will have charge of the funeral.

GOVERNOR FOLK HAS A FIRE.

Missouri Executive Mansion Damaged to Extent of $10,000.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Jefferson City, Mo., 23.—The governor's mansion at Jefferson City was damaged to the extent of $10,000 by fire early to-day Governor Folk, his wife and guests had to seek quarters at a nearby hotel. Governor Folk, aroused by the crackling of the flames telephoned the fire department and then attempted to extinguish the fire with two fire extinguishers. This proved ineffective and after seeing his wife and their five guests safely out of the mansion, the governor devoted himself to saving the portraits of his predecessors in office. The fire is believed to have started from a flue in the second story hallway. After more than an hour's labor the blaze was extinguished. The mansion was erected in 1972 at a cost of $75,000. The loss is fully covered by insurance.

COTTON PRICES TAKE A LEAP.

New York Futures Market Advanced 30 Points Yesterday.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

New York, Oct. 23.—Considerable activity and excitement attended an advance of 30 points in the cotton market to-day due to more or less general frosts over the northern part of the cotton belt and reports of crop damage. Opening at 10.37 against 10.18 on the close of Saturday, January cotton sold up to 10.47 or about 11.7 points above the low level of last week and 29 points higher for the day on hurried covering of shorts and an expansion of bull support through wire and commission houses.

Realizing caused some irregularity late in the day, but the market was well supported and closed steady at a net advance of 20 to 30 points. The sales of the day were estimated at 500,000 bales.

WARM WIRELETS.

The Supreme Court of the United States yesterday decided that State Senator George E. Green, of New York, must go to Washington for trial on the charge of conspiring with George W. Beavers and others to defraud the government in the purchase of supplies for the Postoffice Department.

The government of the United States is willing to enter into contracts with corporations or individuals for the construction of any portion or all of the Canal Canal. This statement was made by Secretary Taft yesterday while discussing conditions upon the isthmus and the policy of the government.

THE PRESIDENT'S RALEIGH SPEECH

That Famous Deliverance Calls Forth Interview From Southern Railway's President

HOW MR. SPENCER VIEWS IT

Says Mr. Roosevelt's Position is Not so Radical as Year Ago—Railroads Want Commission Rates Reviewed by Courts.

By Wire to The Morning Star

Washington, Oct. 23.—Samuel Spencer, president of the Southern Railway, made a brief stop in Washington to-night on his way South. In expressing his views of President Roosevelt's recent speech on railroad legislation at Raleigh, N. C., Mr. Spencer, who has taken a prominent part in presenting the railroads attitude on rate legislation, said:

"The President's speech indicates that he is not disposed now to insist that the power over rates which he favors should be exercised by the Inter-State Commerce Commission, but by an administration body." Again in the Raleigh speech, the President advocates that the administrative body shall have power after complaint and hearing to fix only a maximum rate," not an absolute rate, unalterable thereafter by the carrier as provided for in the Esch-Townsend bill. This apparently follows the opinion of the Attorney General on May 5th, in which it was held that Congress could constitutionally empower a commission to fix maximum" rates which it regards as just and reasonable.

"The difference between these two positions is vital. To fix absolute rates unalterable by the carrier in many cases is to determine definitely and arbitrarily by governmental tribunal the relative advantages of competing cities or regions. To prescribe maximum rates only leaves the carrier free to make reductions, and may, and generally will, result in adjustments which will bring down whole tiers of rates, leaving the relation of rates as they were and entailing enormous losses to the railways.

"For instance, an adjustment or rates to southeastern territory that would be more favorable to Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis as compared with the rates from the Atlantic seaboard cities could not be successfully made by a governmental agency limited to the making of maximum rates, for the reason that if it should be ordered that the rates from the middle western cities should not exceed certain maxima, the railways from the eastern cities or the water lines would still be free to lower their rates and they would be forced to do so in order to retain their business and to preserve business of the cities depending on them for transportation facilities. The result would be that substantially the same relative adjustment of rates that had existed before the issuance of the order will be restored and no one would have received any substantial or lasting benefit. It is true that the shippers from both sections would have somewhat lower rates, but they would be retained at the price of such inroads into the revenues of the carriers that deterioration in service might result.

The importance of this consideration, not only to the railways, but the shippers as well, can be appreciated at this time when there is a car shortage all over the country, with freight congestion at many points. Despite the fact that the railways have been investing largely in extension and incurring enormous obligations for the purpose, their facilities are not equal for the traffic demands upon them. These increased expenditures still continue, and from the present outlook must continue for a long time. This will require large additional sums of money which the railroads can obtain only through earnings and the sale of the securities. Government action that would reduce earnings would impair both of these resources, and would render still more difficult the task of meeting the requirements of the public.

"The speech at Raleigh indicates also that the President favors giving to the railways more leeway than he formerly suggested by not having the rate take effect 'immediately,' but in some reasonable time. A reasonable time for a rate may mean time for a review of it by judicial and not administrative authority if the rights of property are found to be involved.

"The Esch-Townsend bill, as passed by the House of Representatives last Winter would noly only have subjected the roads to punishment before judicial conviction, but the character of judicial review proposed was such that they would not have had the benefit of equitable trial even after conviction, for the courts would have been precluded from considering the reasonableness of the rate complained of, and the rate ordered by the commission would have been set aside only if it had been found to be confiscatory. It is important therefore, if legislation is to be enacted that will insure to the roads a 'square deal' that the opportunity for a prompt and effective review of the whole case by the courts should be provided for."

BLOODY RIOT IN SANTIAGO.

Police Killed Ten Persons and Hundreds Were Wounded.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Santiago, Chile, October 23.—A meeting yesterday called to petition to the government to abolish the import tax on Argentine cattle, degenerated into a most serious riot owing to the absence of the troops who are now engaged in manoeuvres two days march from capital. The police who were unable to maintain order charged the crowd and killed ten persons and wounded hundred. The rioters destroyed street cars and smashed electric lights. At 8 o'clock yesterday evening, the rioting was at its highest pitch and the fire department was called out to restore order. The riot ing was continued today and many persons were killed or wounded. The rioters attacked the gasworks, but were repulsed. The troops are expected to return here tonight. The department has been declared in a state of siege. At 6 o'clock tonight the streets were comparatively tranquil but great alarm prevails.

END OF YELLOW FEVER AT NEW ORLEANS NEAR

Only Two Cases Sunday, Four Yesterday and No Deaths Either Day—President's Visit.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New York, Oct. 23.—The following is the official summary of the yellow fever record in New Orleans up to 6 P. M. today:

New cases today, 4.
Total cases to date, 3,365.
Deaths, none.
Total deaths to date, 435.
New focus, none.
Under treatment, 63.
Discharged, 2,867.

The record on Sunday was 2 cases and no deaths.

The rapid decline of yellow fever was further manifested today with the low record of cases and the absence of deaths, and, taken in connection with the amelioration of quarantine conditions over many parts of the South, it has been a distinct incentive to the enthusiasm with which preparations are making for the forthcoming visit of the President, whose services to New Orleans have been of inestimable value, both in the matter of assistance in securing the eradication of yellow fever and the moderation or the removal of the hindrance to communication.

Dr. White who has been in charge of the Federal forces since August 8 today said the end of yellow fever was in sight.

As a result of the lifting of the Mississippi State quarantine and the modification of the Texas quarantine, representatives of railroads were busy in communicating with health officers in towns through which their lines run with a view to the restoration of all local trains that were taken off.

Reports from various parts of the Louisiana and Mississippi today indicate heavy travel on Wednesday and Thursday in anticipation of President Roosevelt's visit to New Orleans. The President will traverse Mississippi at night and there will be no opportunity for the people of that State to see him unless they come here.

Pensacola Record.

Pensacola, Fla., Oct. 23.—The yellfollows:

New cases today, 7; total cases, 487.

Deaths, 2; total deaths, 68.

Discharged, 323; under treatment, 97.

JAPANESE NAVAL PAGENT.

Mikado Reviews Fleet of Three Hundred and Eight Vessels.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Tokio, October 23—The naval review to-day passed off without the slightest hitch. It was a most impressive sight, not, however, on account of the class and number of the ships but as a conglomeration of fighting craft fresh from the war and crowned with victories of unprecedented magnitude. Three hundred and eight warships, including three former Russian battleships and several other former Russian warships were drawn up in six lines. The Emperor on board the armored cruiser Asama passed along the front of the first line which was headed by the battleship Shikishima, Admiral Togo,s flagship. When the end of the line was reached the cruiser Asama headed due north and then in a westerly direction, entering between the second and third lines and afterwards resumed her original position.

During this maneuvre Admiral Togo was at the Emperor's side. The Emperor then received in audience on board the Asama, Admiral Noel and the captains of the British and American warships present.

The weather was fair but it was misty on the water. Popular enthusiasm was aroused to the highest pitch. Besides thousands who witnessed the naval pageant from all sorts of large and small vessels in the bay the shore was densely covered with eager spectators. The spectators caused much joy and satisfaction among the Japanese.

JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION.

President Tucker Will Soon Go to Europe on Business.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 23.—Hon. Harry St. John Tucker, the newly elected president of the Jamestown Exposition Company, came to Norfolk on Saturday night and was at his desk in the offices of the exposition company today for the first time in his official capacity.

Tomorrow he will preside at the meeting of the board of directors of the company. At the meeting the affairs of the company will be discussed in detail with the new president and the meeting has been called for that especial purpose.

Mr. Tucker's stay in Norfolk will not be for long, as he expects to go to Europe in the interest of the exposition early in November, and when he returns he will devote the most of his energies to securing a large appropriation for the ter-centennial from the Federal government.

Mr. Tucker expects to sail from New York sometime before the fifth and tenth of November and he will only be in Europe about a month of six weeks. He will go to foreign capitols with letters from President Roosevelt, the Secretary of State, and the heads of the various government departments, and it is planned that he will secure audiences with European rulers in the interest of the exposition.

Adrian Co. Sells Out.

Mr. H. L. Vollers has purchased the stock, good will and all other appurtenances of the Adrian Company, wholesale grocers, on Dock street, and will consolidate the business with that of his own on Nutt street. Capt. Alex. P. Adrian, owner of the business sold to Mr. Vollers, retires to go to New York where he has a very promising field in another line. Wilmington regrets very much to see him leave and the Adrian Company to disappear from the commercial horizon, but very many friends hope that in his new home Capt. Adrian will be pleasantly situated and that he will reap a large measure of success. Mr. C. H. Schulken, who has been with the Adrian Company, will be with Mr. Vollers in the future.

MERRY MINSTREL MELANGE.

Fete Extraordinary In Course of Arrangement by Wilmington Elks.

On tapis for the latter part of November or early in December is a gigantic minstrel show under the auspices of the Wilmington Lodge of Elks. The lodge embraces in its membership a number of favorite artists, as previous efforts in this direction testify, but these are to be augmented this time by a corps of professional phunny phellows direct from the metropolis, who will come here, train the local celebrities, promote the enterprise and carry it off in a blaze of glory just when in the wisdom of the local committee the dear public is ready for it. The officers of the local lodge are now in correspondence with the syndicate in New York and Thursday night a meeting will be held at which all definite arrangements will be made.

The Elks have given several rather ambitious entertainments of the kind at the Academy of Music but the one this time is to be par excellence. Bright new costumes of the most elaborate order are to be brought here for the whole lay-out and anything that has ever been given in this city (apologies to Al. G. Field) will be laid in the shade. But, truly, it is proposed to make of the show a magnificent affair and with the negotiations now pending, it can be nothing else but success. The public will be duly informed of the day and date with such other information as will cause the shekels to loosen up when the box sheet opens.

THREE NEW CORPORATIONS.

Furniture Company for Wilmington—Insurance and Railroad Enterprises.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 23.—The Secretary of State charters the Wilmington Furniture Company; principal stockholders are W. T. Mercer and A Rich, of Wilmington, and Henderson Cole, of Smithfield; capital stock $125,000 to manufacture furniture and fine wood work generally. A charter is also granted the Imperial Mufual Life and Health Insurance Company, of Asheville; Charles A. Webb and other local men incorporators. It is the first insurance company chartered west of the Blue Ride.

Still another charter is granted the North Carolina Connecting Railway, with leave to build a road from Spring Hope to Roxboro, a distance of ninety miles, traversing Nash, Franklin, Halifax, Warren, Vance, Granville and Person counties. Authority is given to construct branch lines or extensions. Among the stockholders are D. J. Tisewater, and D. F. Douglas, of Ohio; Dr. Greene, of Louisiana; T. F. Whilleesey, of Alabama, and D. W. Green, of Henderson.

REVIVAL AT WALLACE.

Baptist Church Established There as Result of Big Meeting.

Special Star Correspondence.

Wallace, N. C., October 2.—One of the greatest revivals that this section of the State has witnessed in many years is being conducted in the People's Tobacco Warehouse here by the Rev. John T. Jenkins, of the First Baptist church, Wilson, N. C., assisted by the Rev. J. A. McKaughan, of Brooklyn Baptist church, of Wilmington.

At the morning service on October 20th, it was decided to organize a Baptist church at Wallace, and at the evening service thirty persons came forward to connect themselves with the Wallace Baptist church. Messrs. Frank Powers, A. D. Sloan, M. B. Pope, N. H. Carter, B. Sloan and J. J. Carter have labored zealously and prayerfully for several years to establish a Baptist church at this place, and God has crowned their efforts most graciously

Coal -- Wood -- Coal

A Convenient Way to Buy Coal.

We have a constantly increasing number of customers who purchase their Winter's coal supply as they are able. When they have the price, they buy a ton, pay for it, and have it sent home. A little later on they get another tton and so on until their full supply is all in. Doing it this way the weight of the whole purchase is not felt. At the same time they have their fuel supply laid in and paid for ready for use before the Winter comes.

If you cannot order your whole supply at once try this plan. We are as pleased at receiving an order for one ton and give the same attention as one for a large quantity.
